

Geography—Who lives in Antarctica?		Year 3&4 Autumn 2 Topic Mat Frozen Worlds!  Can your child answer these questions? By the end of this half term all children should be able to remember these key facts. Tick off each question when they can answer it confidently.	Science – How do living things survive in polar regions?
FACTS	What are the seven continents? Europe, Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Australasia and Antarctica.		FACTS	What temperature does water freeze at? 0 °C
	How does climate change in Earth? The climate changes in Earth, the closer to the equator the hotter the climate. The further away from the equator the colder the climate.			What is MRS NERG when considering what living things need to survive? Movement, reproduction, sensitivity, nutrition, excretion, respiration, growth.
Vocab	continent: any of the seven large and continuous land masses of Earth.		Vocab	Environment: everything that surrounds a particular type of living thing and affects its growth and health.
	ice shelf: a thick mass of ice covering coastal land and extending out over the sea so that the extended portion floats			Classify: to group or order.
	glacier: a large body of accumulating ice and compacted snow, that slowly moves and changes under its own weight.			Vertebrate: having a backbone / spine.
Art—How are different printing techniques used to create a pattern or picture?			Religious Education—What do Hindu’s believe God is like?
FACTS	What is the difference between mono and relief printing? Mono form of printmaking that has lines or images that can only be used once. Relief is a type of printing where a printing block is used to make a mark on paper.		FACTS	What is ‘Aum’? ‘Aum’ is the sound of a sacred spiritual symbol in the Hindu religion.
	Who was William Morris? 19th century designer of wallpaper and tapestry who became famous for printing repeating patterns in his designs.			Who is Brahma? Brahma is the god responsible for the creation of the world and all living things.
Vocab	print: an indentation or mark made on a surface		Vocab	deity: a god or goddess
	overlay: different materials used to add colour & texture to print.			sacred: connected with God or a god or dedicated to a religious purpose
	Indentation: a dent in a surface			puja: the act of worship (Hinduism)